

Travel Advisory

Dear Partners,

Due to multiple airspace closures, Air Arabia flights to and from the UAE are temporarily suspended until 15:00 (UAE time), Wednesday 04 March 2026. In addition, flights to Lebanon, Jordan, Syria, and Iraq are suspended until 05 March 2026.

To support our customers, the below disruption handling policy applies.

Rebooking

Passengers booked on cancelled flights are eligible for a one-time free date change within ±15 days from the original flight date.

Cancellation

Passengers booked on cancelled flights are eligible for a free cancellation with either
Full credit voucher, or
Full refund to the original form of payment.

For Travel Agents

Agents may process changes directly in the reservation system by transferring or cancelling the booking. No cancellation fees will apply.

Refund requests can be submitted through the following link: (Booking/Flight cancellation—Refund request)

Passengers booked on flights departing within the next 72 hours (until 6th March 2026), where the flight is not cancelled, are eligible for a one-time free modification within ±15 days from the original flight date or cancellation without charges by contacting our call center or the local Sales Support.

For any support or clarification, please contact your respective Sales team.

We continue to monitor the situation closely in coordination with the relevant authorities and will resume normal operations once conditions permit.

Best regards,
Air Arabia Team
